

By Ordering On This Form I understand that I have read and understand the terms, conditions and policies as outlined on this website. I understand these are custom made items and there are no refunds or exchanges. I also understand after I commission Missouri Boot & Shoe Company to make these custom made items my order is not official until it is paid for upfront. This is due to the fact materials will be committed specifically to my order and will therefore not be reusable for other items. I also understand custom made products need time to be created specifically for me before they can ship out. I am there for accepting all of the conditions in the policy statements outlined on this website when I place my order on this order form."
